Incentive Winners

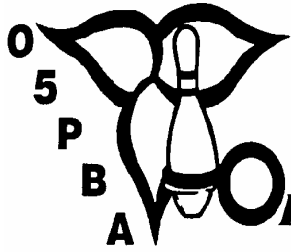

Congratulations to all our Zone and Decentralized Association Incentive Winners from last season. Anyone wishing to see our winners or acquire a copy of the listing can do so by going to the O5 web site.

Congrats

A special congratulations to our very own wonderfully lovable Mr. Al Hong. As you all know, Al received Life Membership from the Ontario 5 Pin Bowlers' Association in July of this year. In August, he was selected by the Canadian 5 Pin Bowlers' Association for Life Membership in the C5. Our sincere congrats to you Al, it was certainly well deserved

Ontario 5 Pin Bowlers' Association

Welcome to the 2006 – 2007 Bowling Season

On behalf of your Board of Directors, please accept our appreciation for your dedicated time and effort to what we hope will be another successful and exciting bowling season for all our members.

As communicated previously, regrettably last year showed another decline in membership and a number of Zones and DC's in financial trouble. To help address these issues and obviously as a concerned Board, we decided that a seminar be held entitled "Survival of O5PBA". This seminar was the best attended seminar ever conducted and it showed everyone that 5-pin bowling still has a future and we all want it to survive. As membership representatives, you told us what is needed to keep 5-pin bowling alive and communicated a number of your concerns as well as some excellent ideas.

Jennifer Guay and Jackie Hawkins took these ideas and at this year's AGM a new Strategic Plan was formulated. At our SAGM in November, a new Strategic Plan will be introduced for your approval. Your Board of Directors held a caucus meeting in July and a number of your ideas are already being implemented.

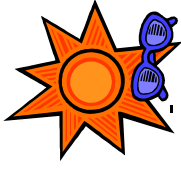

Membership decline has been our number one priority for a long time and the continued reducing numbers has caused our membership criteria to be a burden on a number of Zones and DC's. At our SAGM we will be recommending new criteria based on actual membership and a new tournament and fundraising formula.

Our annual convention was another concern for a number of Zones and again at this year's SAGM we will be recommending dramatic changes for our 2007 AGM. As someone said in their convention questionnaire... "it is time to quit talking and start doing". As your elected Board of Directors we are committed to stop talking and start doing and this will be evident at our SAGM. Keep in mind though that we all must start doing as a "TEAM" - we all must work together to keep this sport both viable and fun.

Where Ya From, Buckaroo?

Answers

1. A) Holy flatfish, Batman! The word halibut derives from the Middle English halybutte ("holy flatfish") because the fish was traditionally eaten on holy days.
2. B) The word assassin is drawn from an Arabic word meaning "hashish user" and originally referred to a Syrian religious sect whose members were said to commit murders while under the influence of the drug.
3. A) Buckaroo derives from the Spanish word vaquero (cowboy). The word's Latin root, vacca (cow), is also the source of the word vaccine, which reflects the practice of injecting people with small doses of cowpox to prevent smallpox.
4. C) The French work cliché refers to a printing plate, and imitates the sound made when a die strikes the metal plate used for printing. Like the word stereotype, cliché reflects both the physical process of printing and also the danger in carelessly reusing phrases and thoughts.
5. B) In Spanish, guerilla literally means "little war" and derives from Guerra (war). The name originated in the 19th century, when Spanish irregulars and civilians carried on resistance against French occupying forces.
6. A) The back side of the U.S. dime depicts a fasces—the bundle of sticks, symbolizing unity, from which the word fascism derives. Fascinating!
7. C) The Greeks coined the term hippopotamus (river horse) to describe the behemoth found in African rivers. Hippos are not closely related to horses; biologically speaking, the name porcupotamus (river pig) would be more accurate.
8. B) Orangutan derives from the Malay orang hutan (man of the jungle). Observers often note the similarity of orangutan facial expressions and gestures to those of humans.
9. A) Parasite derives from the Greek work parasitos, meaning "one who eats from another's table". Some teenagers are, however, known to exhibit parasitic behavior.
10. A) Words can hurt. Sarcasm comes from the Greek word sarkazein (to tear flesh). Morbidly enough, the related word sarcophagus literally means "flesh-eater".
11. C) The word paparazzi is a pluralized version of Paparazzo, a character in Federico Fellini's film classic La Dolce Vita (1960). Like today's paparazzi, the character goes to extreme lengths to secure photographs of Hollywood stars.
12. A) Tycoon derives from the Japanese taikun (great ruler). The term became popular in the 19th century, when the United States opened trade relations with Japan just as a new class of American industrialists was on the rise.
