Basketball Answers

Answers

1. B) According to the Official Basketball Association Rule Book, the basket is 10 feet above the court floor
2. A) Michael Jordan began his NBA career with the Chicago Bulls in 1984. Up to 1998, Jordan led the Bulls to 6 NBA championships, won 5 Most Valuable Player awards, and retired twice. In 2001 he once again came out of retirement when he joined the Washington Wizards NBA roster. He retired in 2003 with the highest scoring average (30.1 points per game) in NBA history.
3. A) Each team consists of 5 players—2 guards, 2 forwards and 1 center. Since the game is such a fast paced one, all players have to switch back and forth between offense and defense.
4. C) Believe it or not, Wilt Chamberlain scored 100 points in one night, on Mar.2/62. The feat set the NBA record for points scored by one player in a single game.
5. C) A basketball game begins with a jump ball between both teams at midcourt.
6. B) Julius Erving, known to basketball fans as Dr. J, played professional basketball for 16 yrs., beginning in 1971. His acrobatic ball handling and stunning slam dunks forever changed the way the game was played. In 1996 he was named by the NBA as one of the 50 greatest basketball players of all times.
7. B) Each team has 24 seconds from the beginning of each new possession to try to score a basket. A special timer-the shot clock-is restarted each time possession of the ball changes from one team to another.
8. A) A foul shot, or free throw, is worth one point. When a player is fouled by an opponent while shooting a basket, he is awarded a free throw. The number awarded depends on the seriousness of the penalty.
9. D) A student of Zen Buddhism, Phil Jackson has a unique approach to coaching basketball. Jackson mixes basketball fundamentals with Eastern philosophy in an attempt to create a well-balanced player. It seems to be working, because at the rate he is succeeding, he might soon run out of fingers for his championship rings.
10. B) While Charles Barkley probably thinks he invented the game, it was actually educator James Naismith who created the game of basketball in 1895 while teaching at the YMCA in Springfield, Massachusetts. He came up with the idea when he was looking for an indoor winter activity for his students. The original game was played with 2 empty peach baskets set on a pole at opposite ends of the court, a ball, and a ladder to get the ball out of the basket.
