On Friday, November 21st, 2008, an article appeared in the Toronto Sun newspaper regarding Tommy Ryan "A Toronto Kingpin". Both informative and entertaining, the article was written by Mike Filey "The Way We Were". He came across a fascinating video clip on the internet while researching the column. It's the "Tabloid" television show dated January 25th, 1957. After the weather report by iconic weatherman Percy Saltzman, the show's hostess Joyce Davidson interviews the creator of 5 pin bowling Tommy Ryan. You can check it out at: archives.cbc.ca/lifestyle/pastimes/clips/15874. 	On behalf of your Board of Directors and the office staff of O5PBA, we would like to extend seasons greetings to everyone. We wish you a Happy Hanukkah, a Merry Christmas and a safe, healthy and happy New Year.

PARTICIPACTION AND COCA COLA CANADA LAUNCH SOGOACTIVE

Earlier this year, ParticipACTION and Coca Cola Canada announced that they have joined forces to develop a national program promoting physical activity by and for Canadian youth. Over the past few months, ParticipACTION and Coca Cola Canada, along with an advisory board of youth representatives and government and not-for-profit organizations from the sector, have been working together to design a program that will inspire youth 13-19 years of age to increase their daily level of physical activity. We're proud to announce that the program, called SOGO Active, launched on October 9th.

Sponsored by Coca-Cola Canada in collaboration with ParticipACTION and its network of Provincial/territorial coordinators, SOGO Active is unlike any other youth fitness initiative because it gives young Canadians the tools to design, change and control their own individual get active plan.

ParticipACTION consulted with leading Canadian physical activity experts, teenagers and a broad network of provincial, territorial, aboriginal and community-based organizations to develop this exciting "for youth, by youth" solution. SOGO Active is a $5 million, five-year initiative.

Coca-Cola will award over 1,000 torchbearer spots in the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Torch Relay to teenagers who join Sogo Active and demonstrate a commitment to adopting an active lifestyle.

For more information or to become a community host please visit the SOGO website www.sogoactive.com or contact Diana Dampier at ddampier@participACTION.com.
